

Andreas S Jensen

Andreas is a London, UK based Danish singer-songwriter, producer and musician.

Three singles from Andreas' solo debut album Disturbed were supported by British BBC6 Radio and received radio play in the UK and abroad, with several hundred stations playing his songs. The Disturbed album also received many great reviews on blogs and online mags.

2019 highlights

January: California, US tour (eight dates incl. two unplugged radio sessions).

Early February: Performed in Fort Worth and Austin, Texas.

Late February: Andreas' first New Zealand gig was SOLD OUT!!

March: Plays a 5 date tour of northern Germany (including Berlin, Lübeck, Hamm, Görlitz and Broderick)

Andreas' upcoming album Keep Sane (to be released summer 2019) is inspired by his many visits to The House Of Songs in Austin, Texas. The songs are packed with Americana and Alt Country influences, picked up through co-writes with local Texas writers many of whom contribute to the album with Texas style slide and fingerpicking guitar, bar piano and back ground vocals. The album is a clear departure from Andreas' Indie rock inspired debut.

Background:

Andreas has a background as a pop writer/producer for people like: Kevin Lyttle (Atlantic US), Stephanie Heinzmann (Universal Germany), Vybez Kartel and Delirium/Nerina Pallot. As a part of The Funktuary he was responsible for putting together Armand Van Helden's "My My My" a big hit in the United Kingdom and a club cult classic worldwide. Andreas is also a busy live musician having toured extensively, worldwide with bands like Drum'n'Bass/Reggae festival favourites the Dub Pistols.

Live Andreas performs his songs solo, stripped down and acoustic.
