

Andreas S Jensen: ONLY DIE ONCE

Release date: September 7th

Label: AvibeyPlace

Only Die Once is the second single and the first track on Disturbed, Andreas' debut album which is being released on September 15th.

The song was co-written in Austin, Texas with austinite Nicholas Ginbey.

The lyrics revolve around the dream of being someones hero and saviour. However, as the song evolves, it becomes ambiguously unclear who's saving who.

In Andreas' own words: "Only Die Once is about the shortness of life and a desire to make an impact.....it's the feeling of time running out and the importance of enjoying life and making the best out of it." -A realisation Andreas came to due to personal loss of a parent.

Only Die Once is a pop song with purpose. A glimpse into the future dwelling on past regrets, beautifully wrapped in echo-feedback guitars, underpinned by a pulsating piano reminiscent of late 70's Bowie, developing into a big Blur-type guitar riff chorus, ultimately climaxing in a crescendo brass part section.

The fear of failure, is a theme that lyrically connects to first single Trust Is My Anchor and recurs throughout the album, Disturbed.
